Course Description

A survey of technological advancements in the field of digital media and their impact. The objective is to explain how digital media has transformed the communication of ideas in society and to make responsible choices in the creation and consumption of digital media based on awareness of global, social, ethical, and legal contexts. Topics include social media, the visual display of information, ethics and privacy, participatory media, and the impact of digital media on culture.

Course Introduction

Rapid technological advancements in the field of digital media have transformed the world we live in. The Internet, World Wide Web, smart phones, e-books, video games, and tablet devices have changed how we communicate, learn, think, live, play, and view the world. This course is a study of the impact of digital media and its effect on individuals, culture, and society from a computing perspective. Topics include social media, the visual display of information, ethics and privacy, participatory media, and the impact of digital media on culture.

Course Outcomes

After completing this course, you should be able to:

• explain how digital media has transformed the communication of ideas, information, and arguments in society locally and globally
• effectively communicate ideas, information, arguments, and messages through digital media to achieve a specific goal
• access, analyze, interpret, and evaluate digital media to foster learning and to guide decision-making
• make responsible choices in the creation and consumption of digital media based on awareness of global, social, ethical, and legal contexts

Grading Information

Grading Criteria

Your grade for this course will be based on the completion of the following assignments:

| Class Participation | 20% |
Project 1: Company Analysis

This company analysis is worth 20% of your final course grade.

Purpose: The use of digital media has transformed how companies communicate with their customers. The use of the websites, YouTube, e-books, e-mail and various forms of social media such as Facebook, Twitter, Pinterest, Snapchat, Instagram, and blogs has shaped current day communication strategies. Students are required to select a company that utilizes digital or social media to communicate with customers and provide background information on the company, list the digital and social media platforms the company uses, and discuss a real-life example of how the company used digital or social media. In addition to the course content provided in the course, this project will require additional research outside of the classroom.

More detailed information can be found in the LEO Classroom (See Assignments area).
Project 2: Presentation

This presentation is worth 20% of your final course grade.

Purpose: Digital media has changed the ways ideas, information, and arguments in society are communicated both locally and globally. Individuals and organizations frequently use digital media as a means to influence individuals and organizations. In this assignment, you will identify news stories that demonstrate how digital media has been used to influence individuals or organizations. Then you will create a presentation analyzing and interpreting how the messages within the digital media were used to guide decision-making.

More detailed information can be found in the LEO Classroom (See Assignments area).

Project 3: Research Paper

This research paper is worth 20% of your final course grade.

Purpose: Digital media is everywhere, often making it necessary to analyze the source of the digital media as well as the methods used to consume it. The responsible consumption of digital media requires individuals to have an awareness of the global, social, ethical, and legal contexts in which the digital media is consumed. In this assignment, you will choose a topic related to the global, social, ethical, or legal context of digital media for in-depth research, explaining how the issues associated to the topic relates to the consumption of digital media.

More detailed information can be found in the LEO Classroom (See Assignments area).

Class Participation (Weekly Discussions)

There is a series of weekly discussion activities. Topics are posted in the Content > Weekly Discussion areas in the classroom. Each student is expected to discuss the topics critically in the context of the readings, videos, or other content assignment for that week. This is your chance to discuss the course material with each other just as you would in a face-to-face class.

Please do not attach files to your comments in the discussions.

Final Exam

The final will be a take-home all-essay exam and will be posted during the final week of class. No new reading material will be assigned during this week. Please review posted reading materials in Weeks 1-7.

More detailed information can be found in the LEO Classroom (See Assignments area).

GRADING

According to UMUC’s grading policy, the following marks are used:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>Undergraduate</th>
<th>Graduate</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A</td>
<td>90-100</td>
<td>90-100</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B</td>
<td>80-89</td>
<td>80-89</td>
